DOUBLE TRACK SIDING, 9,000 FEET LONG, ADVANCES TO LINK PENNA. RAILROAD'S MORRISVILLE YARDS WITH NEW FAIRLESS WORKS OF U. S. STEEL COMPANY

Plans Call for Siding Laid on Earth Embankment, at Easy Descending Gradient Into Steel Plant, Crossing The P. R. R. Main Tracks and Highway 13 Over Series of Seven Concrete Spans and Steel Girder Bridge.

The Pennsylvania Railroad announced today that work is progressing rapidly on the construction project in Falls Township which will link the railroad's Morrisville freight yard with the new Fairless Works of the United States Steel Company located on the Delaware River, near Morrisville.

Plans call for a double track siding, 9,000 feet in length, to be laid on an earth embankment at an easy descending gradient into the steel plant and crossing the Pennsylvania's five main line tracks and the Bristol Turnpike (U. S. Highway 13) over a series of seven reinforced concrete spans and a steel girder bridge. The project will cost an estimated $1,250,000 and is expected to be completed by the end of this year.

As described by L. P. Struble, chief engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad's Eastern Region, under whose general supervision the work is being carried out, the new spur will leave the eastern end of the Morrisville Yard at a high level and will descend to the plant site on an average grade of seven inches per one hundred feet. The more than half a million cubic yards of embankment needed for the project is being obtained from a location about a mile to the west, on railroad-owned property lying between the Morrisville Yard and the Lincoln Highway (U. S. 1).

A large reinforced concrete pipe will be laid in the bed of the abandoned canal formerly owned by the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Company, but now the property of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to provide for continued flowage of canal waters. The Lehigh will be carried close to the two westbound main line passenger and freight tracks and in the area between them and the two eastbound through tracks and the additional single industrial track which parallels them at this point. The Lehigh will also be used east of the Morrisville Yard and the Lincoln Highway (U. S. 1).

The westbound tracks will be crossed by a 44-foot reinforced concrete span, while the eastbound tracks will be crossed via a 66-foot steel girder bridge. Adequate space is being provided to allow for eventual widening of the Bristol Turnpike.

RAMPAGING RIVERS

The floods of catastrophic proportions which have ravaged western Missouri and eastern Kansas have, as was inevitable, inspired proposals for vast flood control projects, to be financed by the Federal Government. But to prevent floods of the type which inundated this vast area would entail expenditures of many billions of dollars. And then results would be doubtful.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Wright were Misses Martha Stevenson and Marie Leins, Trenton, N. J.

FALSE TEETH

That Loosen
Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or was bitten in the wrong place. Do not be afraid of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plate. Hold false teeth firmly so that you have more comfort. This does not sour. Check "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.

Magill pointed out that the bill would tax some individual and corporate incomes at so high a rate that it would take away the incentive to work harder and produce more. So production would be held back. And it is agreed that production is the best cure for inflation.

Further, Magill said, the bill will discourage new investment, cause higher prices to consumers, and force companies to sell government securities to finance expansion.

Rates on individual incomes have been so drawn that they will tempt persons in the high brackets to do less, not more. The higher levies on corporation profits will result in less careful management and a tendency to pass the burden on to consumers through higher prices.

One Oklahoma county had rain for 23 consecutive days. Farmers there are reported to have abandoned a project to hire a rainmaker and to be contemplating hiring carpenters to build an ark.

Concern with a capital of only $1,200 received government contracts totalling $3,000,000. It is not revealed where it obtained the $1,200.

Mrs. Samuel Hastings, president of the Bucks County Firemen's Association, was introduced. He said: "The county is growing and a lot of houses are being built in the lower end. There will be a lot more built in the very near future. The Danhersett outfit have 1469 acres in Oxford Valley-Falls area and are putting up ten houses a day and by the end of the year expect to have 1100 houses built. The Levitt and Sons real estate developers of Long Island have 1700 acres of land under option and if the demand for houses in the area is great enough they will build between 6,000 and 15,000 houses. Because of the U. S. Steel building in Falls township there will also be a lot of other industries settle in this area, which will mean that whole new towns will spring up in the lower end of the county."

Included in the report, drawn up and presented by the Montgomery County Planning Commission, was the statement that the proposed extension to the Morrisville area would function principally as a distribution road for Southeastern Pennsylvania rather than as a bypass for through traffic since approximately 70 per cent of the Turnpike traffic at King of Prussia, according to State Highway figures, has Philadelphia as its origin or destination.

Evelyn Wyckoff Will Star In Charming Irish Musical Comedy

LAMBERTVILLE, N. J., July 19.—"Irene" the charming Irish musical comedy which has given us the popular title tune and also "Alice Blue Gown", will open at St. John Terrell's Music Circus, here, on Tuesday, July 24, for a week's engagement.

The important roles in this James Montgomery story, which has lyrics by Joseph McCarthy and music by Harry Tierney, will be played by Evelyn Wyckoff, Arthur Maxwell, Helen Raymond, Fred Harper, Jack Williams, Bobbie Arnst and Rowan Tudor, and also the Music Circus Choral Group and Corps de Ballet. Oscar Kosarin will lead the orchestra. Charles Evans will do the sets, Ruth Morley will supervise the costumes and Robert Jarvis will stage the entire production.

Evelyn Wyckoff who performed at the Music Circus last year, is a graduate of the Broadway and national companies of "Oklahoma" in which she played Laurey. She also appeared on Broadway in "Babes in Arms", "Lady in the Dark", "The Lady Comes Across" and "Johnny 2".

"Irene" is the story of the poor little Hell Kitchen (N. Y.) lassie who proves in both song and dance to the satisfaction of all, and particularly the snobbish socialites, that the family tree isn't as important as honesty, virtue and a good heart. "Irene" premiered on Broadway at the Vanderbilt Theatre on November 18, 1949 and ran for 670 performances.

DEFENSE RESOURCE

NEW HOPE, July 19—An aerial photographic mosaic of the Delaware Valley region for use in defense resources, is being made by aircraft of the New Hope-Morrisville Civil Defense Forces. The announcement of such has been made by Central Civil Defense Council.

William Hilstand, Doylestown, an aerial photographer, is doing the mapping, with Robert Angell and Robert Horthart of Trenton, N. J., managing flight operations. The aerial survey will correlate information gathered by ground units, in charge of William Richardson of New Hope, with a house-to-house census and recruiting survey by defense groups.

This will be coordinated with a survey and physical census now underway of available boat and emergency equipment by James Magill and Fred Bair, officers of the Delaware River Auxiliary Police Patrol.

Details then will be plotted on a master control map at the headquarters of the Bucks County Auxiliary Police and Wardens Service, under Brig. Gen. Wilson H. Stephenson, USA, retired.

Dr. John A. Flood, burgess, has disclosed part of the enlarged auxiliary police unit roster of New Hope. These new police include: First Mobile Squad—Officer Francis Kerwin, Patrolmen Crawford Worstell, Nelson McKissic, Richard Housel, Frank Kinsey and Scott Oblinger. Second Mobile Squad—Officer Miles Delaney, Patrolmen Asa Pickett, Stephen Gerencer and Frederick Flood. Third Mobile Squad—Officer Raymond Evans, Patrolmen John Hilliard, Harry Markey, George Denson, John Grady and Ted Herring.

Also Reserve Squad—Patrolmen Wilbert Hanby and Albert Huber.

Delaware River Police Patrol—

First officer, James Magill; second officer, Fred Bair; Patrolmen Neil Abbott, Irish Monaghan and William Richardson.

blue and a decorated cake adorned the center of the table.

A social time was enjoyed and refreshments served to: Mrs. Clement Smoyer, Mrs. Johnston Hetherington, Mrs. Howard Smoyer, Bristol; Mrs. John Dick, Mrs. Reba Livesey, Mrs. William Reynolds,

Mrs. Leo Gould, and Mrs. Theodore Stake. Mrs. Carroll received a toaster from the group and a gift from her "Secret Pal."

DOLLARS GROW LIKE GRASS

... WHEN YOU SAVE REGULARLY

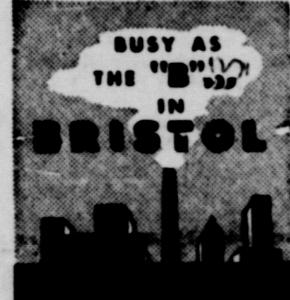

To prove this point, plant a few dollars in a SAVINGS ACCOUNT — once a week for three months. For seed, use those dollars which now are slipping mysteriously through your fingers. At the end of this period, you'll be amazed by how much you've accumulated. And you'll see why the families who save, drive nice cars, enjoy leisurely vacations and own their own homes.

3 CARS GIVE 104 YEARS OF SERVICE

Owned by Russell Yoder,
James Beun and Jacob L.
Stoneback, Quakertown

1911, '14, '24 MODELS

QUAKERTOWN, July 19—Three Quakertown residents, Russell Yoder, James Beun and Jacob L. Stoneback, are the owners of automobiles that have a total of 104 years of service, and all are in good running condition.

Mr. Beun's car is a 1911 model, from which he claims he can get 11 miles per gallon of gasoline. Yoder's vehicle, a 1914 model, cost $785 when new. It has an all-steel body and was one of the first cars to appear on the market with an automatic starter that really worked. The car owned by Stoneback was manufactured in 1924, and its factory price is believed to have been in the vicinity of $15,000. Very few of its make are seen on the highways today because it is a very expensive car.

Mr. Yoder purchased his car in Lancaster two years ago, and last year drove it 1,200 miles without a trace of trouble. Beun's car was on display at the Allentown Fair in 1911, and when he bought it in the vicinity of Slatington last year, he also got the original instruction book and a well-worn envelope in which the book was mailed.

The history of Stoneback's car is not known because it was made in England. The owners of these cars have invested more money in restoring their antiques than they would spend on a 1951 low priced car. Members of the Antique Automobile Club of America, they hope to drive their automobiles in a contest in which old cars will take part this summer.
